

Lookeen Desktop and Lookeen Server License Agreement

Creation date: 2024-Oct-22 / Revision 1023

This License Agreement (the “Agreement”) is a legal agreement between you, either an individual or a single legal entity (“Licensee”), and Lookeen GmbH, Germany (“Lookeen”) that governs Licensee’s acquisition and use of the Lookeen software in all its available Lookeen Desktop and Lookeen Server Editions and any accompanying documentation (the “Software”). Licensee must accept the terms of this Agreement before downloading, copying, or otherwise using the Software. By clicking “I AGREE” at the end of this Agreement, or by installing, copying, purchasing or otherwise using the Software, Licensee is indicating that Licensee has read and understood, and that Licensee assents to be bound by, the terms of this Agreement. If Licensee does not agree to the terms of the Agreement, do not click on the “I AGREE” button and do not use the Software. If Licensee does not agree to the terms of the Agreement, Licensee is not granted any rights whatsoever in the Software and must permanently delete all copies of the Software in Licensee’s possession.

1. License Grant:

Subject to the terms of this Agreement, Lookeen grants to Licensee a personal, limited, non-exclusive, non-transferable license, without the right to sublicense, for a one-year, multi-year, or other license term as specified in a purchase order, enterprise license agreement, or other ordering document issued by Licensee and Lookeen, to download and to install and execute one (1) copy of the Software on one (1) computer or server that is utilized to access one (1) Licensee’s email account. Licensee may install and use copies of the Software, up to, but not to exceed, the number of licenses shown on the purchase record. Additional installations must be approved and paid for separately. A license for the Software may not be used concurrently on different computers by the same user or different users, unless explicitly stated in the License Agreement. Licensee may download, install and use the Software free of charge on any computer during the 14 days immediately after the Software is installed (“Evaluation Period”). After the Evaluation Period, Licensee’s continued use of the Software will be subject to payment of all applicable fees as described in Section 4 below. Upon payment of the License Fee, you will be provided, through Lookeen or Lookeen’s authorized agent, with a confidential numbered code to access the Software (the “License Key”). You shall, at all times and without exception, maintain the confidentiality of the License Key. Specifically, you shall not disclose the information associated with the License Key to any other person, corporation or any other entity. Please see section 13 for additional license regulations concerning the different Lookeen Desktop (Client) Editions and section 14 the “Lookeen Server”.

2. Restrictions on Use:

Except as expressly permitted in Section 1 (License Grant) (if at all), Licensee may not (a) copy, translate, modify, reverse engineer, decompile, disassemble, create derivative works of, or otherwise use the Software or any part thereof, (b) distribute, sell, assign, pledge, sublicense, lease, loan, use for service bureau purposes, rent, or otherwise transfer the Software or any part thereof in any form to another person, (c) remove from the Software, or alter, any of the trademarks, trade names, logos, patent or copyright notices or other proprietary notices or markings, or add any other notices or markings to the Software, nor may Licensee create derivative works from the Software. Any derivative works based on the Software shall be the property of Lookeen. Lookeen does not grant to Licensee any express or implied licenses or rights to any enabling technologies or systems that may be necessary to use the Software. Please see section 13 for additional license regulations concerning the different “Lookeen Desktop (Client) Editions” and section 14 the “Lookeen Server”.

3. Ownership:

The Software is licensed, not sold, and Licensee agrees that the Software and all intellectual property and proprietary rights therein are owned by Lookeen. Lookeen reserves title and all right and interests in and to the Software not expressly granted to Licensee in Section 1 (License Grant), including without limitation all patent rights, copyrights, trademarks, trade names, trade secrets and other intellectual property and proprietary rights. There are no implied licenses under this Agreement, and all rights not expressly granted are reserved by Lookeen. Portions of this software are Copyright © 2024 The Apache Software Foundation. See further details in section 11.

4. Registration and Payment:

If Licensee uses the Software after the 14-day evaluation period, Licensee agrees to obtain a registered license from Lookeen and pay all applicable fees. Unless Licensee and Lookeen have entered into a separate agreement, fees shall be the then current fees set forth on Lookeen’s website at www.lookeen.com, or at a successor site. Subscription or Upgrade Plans or contracts, i.e., licenses with a defined term, will automatically renew and be billed again on the same date they were originally invoiced. Payment must be made after the invoice has been issued and is based on the respective terms of payment according to Lookeen’s terms and conditions. Lookeen may, in unforeseen circumstances beyond its control (e.g. in the case of inflation), increase the annual license costs by up to 25%. Should such circumstances arise, you will be provided with a notification period of four months (prior to the end of the subscription year(s)). The contract period for the Subscription Plan is indefinite, rescindable up until two months before the end of each renewal period following the issue of the invoice. If the contract is not terminated (you can terminate the contract only in written form) within this period, it will automatically be renewed for the same duration as the previous term. The customer will then be entitled to request a new license key for use in the subsequent period, or the existing key may be extended for continued use. Lookeen will send the corresponding invoice based on the respective terms of payment according to Lookeen’s terms and conditions. Cancelling the contract entails the complete cessation of use of the Lookeen. In addition, all terms of this agreement remain in effect following a cancellation of the contract. The Subscription Plan or Upgrade Plans includes every update (version 1.x to 1.y) and upgrade (version 1.y to 2.x) for Lookeen.

8. Term and Termination:

The term of this Agreement will commence upon Licensee clicking "I AGREE" or installing/using the software and will continue until terminated as specified in this Section 8 (Term and Termination). The license granted under this Agreement shall terminate 14 days following installation of the Software unless Licensee registers the Software and pays all applicable fees. The license will automatically terminate earlier if Licensee fails to comply with the limitations described herein. Licensee may only terminate this License by destroying all copies of the Software in Licensee's possession and by discontinuing all use of the Software. However, termination of the License does not relieve the Licensee of their obligation to pay any outstanding license fees or subscription charges that are due under the terms of this Agreement. Any remaining subscription period will continue until its scheduled expiration, without the right to a refund or early termination.

Lookeen may terminate this Agreement and without prior notice take appropriate technical measures to affect such termination in the following cases:

- (a) Licensee fails to comply with the terms of this Agreement; or
- (b) Licensee distributes the Software without prior authorization by Lookeen; or Any termination by Lookeen pursuant to this Section 8 (Term and Termination) will be exercised without limiting any other rights or remedies of Lookeen. Upon termination of this Agreement, the license granted in Section 1 (License Grant) will terminate and Licensee must immediately destroy all copies of the Software in Licensee's possession or control. Sections 2, 3 and 5 through 18 of this Agreement will survive termination.
