

Chaos in Outlook?

Lookeen is the simplest solution to your email overload problems!

You send and receive countless emails every day. You file your emails away in a sophisticated folder system, but still can't find anything. Your inbox is overflowing, and searching through it takes up precious time. Let Lookeen solve your search problems and make your inbox work for you!

Lookeen is a desktop search tool that can be fully integrated into Outlook as an add-on. It speeds up your search for emails, attachments, appointments, contacts and more.

Thanks to real-time indexing, your search results are always up to date, and you can find your data as soon as you need it.

Lookeen is used in over 100 countries by more than 25,000 individuals and companies.
