

Can't find anything on your computer?

Lookeen desktop search will find what you're looking for!

You send, receive and work on countless documents every day. Your filing system takes too much time and effort to maintain. Your company's shared files are badly organized and finding that one important document takes far too long. Stop wasting time searching and start finding with Lookeen, the simplest solution to your search problems.

Lookeen is a desktop search tool that speeds up your search for files and documents of all types, wherever they are hidden. Advanced search filters, wildcards and quick previews make your search more powerful. Lookeen will also find emails, contacts, appointments and more in Microsoft Outlook.

Thanks to real-time indexing, your search results are always up to date. And thanks to Lookeen, you never need to waste another minute on search.

Lookeen is used by professionals in over 25,000 companies across more than 100 countries.

„The searches it runs are extremely fast, and it imposes no detectable burden on the computer's overall speed.“

James Fallows, The Atlantic

„Lookeen increases the productivity of the employees in a verifiable way and this is essential in today's increasingly complex work environments.“

*Martin Stolz,
Microsoft MVP*

„If it's there, Lookeen will find it.“
